

Classical Magnet School
 Course: Latin I

	First Quarter		Second Quarter		Third Quarter		Fourth Quarter
Textbook Chapters	Stage 1, 2, and 3	Stage 4, 5, and 6	Stage 7, 8, and 9	Stage 10, 11, and 12	Stage 13 & 14	Stage 15 & 16	Stage 17 & 18	Stage 19 & 20
Additional Texts	Augustus, Deeds of the Divine Augustus	Slavery Texts from Seneca, Cato, Martial, et. al.	Authentic Tombstone Inscriptions	Pliny the Younger, Eruption of Mt. Vesuvius	Story of Boudica	Caesar's Invasion of Britain	Cleopatra, the Last Pharaoh	Hippocratic Oath
Essential Questions	What skills do we need in order to read? How does reading improve quality of life? What is the role of literacy in civilization? What does it mean to be a Roman? What is government? What constitutes good government?
	What is slavery? Why does slavery exist?	What is death? How do civilizations deal with death? What is tragedy?		What is discrimination? Why does discrimination exist in societies? What is religion?			What is science?
Major Skills	Latin I students will be evaluated throughout the year on five major skills: 1) pronunciation, 2) reading comprehension, 3) vocabulary, 4) ability to explain cultural context, 5) fulfillment of civic and social expectations.
	Use of nominative and accusative case	Personal endings on verbs, plural nouns and verbs, Imperfect and Perfect Tense	Noun declensions, Dative Case	Verbs that take dative case, Asking questions,	Volo, nolo, and possum and the infinitive, noun/adjective agreement	The relative pronoun qui, quae, quod; pluperfect tense	Genitive Case; 4 th and 5 th declensions	Imperatives and Vocative Case, Present Active Participles
Themes/ Topics	Roman Daily Life City of Pompeii	Social Center Slavery	Death Entertainment Public Baths	School Elections Eruption of Mt Vesuvius	Romanization Leadership	Revenge Celebration	Social Unrest	Medicine and Science
Coached Projects	Group and Guided Translations	Roman Authors on Slavery	Tombstone Inscriptions	Celebrity Comparisons	Group and Guided Translations	Latin Day Projects	Group and Guided Translations	Group and Guided Translations
Seminars	Augustus, The Deeds of the Divine Augustus		Gladiators – why chose to become one?	Pliny the Younger, Eruption of Mt. Vesuvius	Boudica's revolt	Caesar's Invasion of Britain	Cleopatra: Last Pharaoh	Hippocratic Oath: Classical Version